Decent Homes Update

Now we have been delivering our full decent homes programme for 13 months, A1 Housing and its partners, Bullock and Connaught have sat down to assess how the programme has been running and to identify any possible improvements and savings.

It was discovered that by making a few changes to the programme we could potentially save money that could then be used to make more improvements.

We are looking into these changes and by the time you receive your Spring edition of In Touch we will hope to be able to report what the changes are and how they will affect you.

Look out for your Spring Edition of In Touch, (delivered in April 2009)
